PARK RULES AND REGULATIONS

If the red flags are flying at the Township Park it means that all fields have been closed for that day due to ground conditions. If green flags are flying it means that the fields may be used.

Violation of this rule can result in cancelation of your Park Permit.

The following rules and regulations are excerpted from Chapter 163 of the Code of East Goshen Township. The word "Park" is intended to include the Township Park as well as the Satellite (Passive) Parks. A complete copy of Chapter 163 is available at the Township Building or on the Township Web page at www.eastgoshen.org.

1. The Park shall be open between sunrise and sunset.
2. No organized activity or gathering of more than 40 persons shall be held in the Township Park without a permit.
3. No organized activity, meeting or gathering of any kind shall be held in a Satellite Park without a permit.
4. No parking or driving on the grass is permitted.
5. No one shall injure, deface, remove, cut or damage any tree, shrub, structure or fixture in the Park.
6. No one shall deface or destroy any notice or regulation posted in the Park.
7. No one shall post any notices, signs or placards in the Park.
8. No one shall climb, stand upon, remove, or relocate any bench, seat or table.
9. No one shall conduct themselves in a boisterous or indecent manner as to annoy any other person using the Park.
10. The use of sound amplification equipment in the Park requires a permit.
11. No one shall set up any booth, table, or structure within the Park without a permit.
12. No one shall solicit for profit within the Park or use facilities in the Park to make a profit.
